FUNDRAISING/BOOK SALES:

Book Donations and Future Sales
- Donations have been unusually slow. They have picked up since the library promoted accepting donations and we added the sign outside the library.
- The Friends need to lay the groundwork now for the day when we don’t have enough inventory for 2 sales a year.
- To that end, we are testing different fundraising activities.
- Requesting funds for new signage to increase patron awareness of the ongoing sale- $300
  - The sign will match the Library of Things signage

  MOTION: Ms. Reyner made a motion to pay $300 for the purchase of new signage for the ongoing book sale shelves.
  2nd: Ms. Murphy. All in favor. None opposed. The motion carried.

Mother’s Day Flower Sales
- 6 volunteers contributed their time to make over 300 paper flowers
- $380 was raised less the $40 materials cost - net $340
- Ms. Price thanked the volunteers who donated their time
- Based on the success of this event, we plan to repeat it in the future with some modifications.

Raffle Basket Summary
- For June we are testing 2-week intervals on the raffle baskets to see if the shorter timeframe results in higher monthly ticket sales.
- May was a slow month for raffle ticket sales
- We will return to monthly.
- New baskets are Summer Reading and Dog Man and in July will be Saratoga Style and Hunger Games.

Library Lawn-Game Palooza Fundraiser
- A new fundraising event will be held on Saturday, July 20 called the Library Lawn-Game Palooza.
- This event will feature lawn games from the Library of Things and will be a way of highlighting what the Library of Things has to offer, as well as borrowed games from members of the community.
- Every player will get 10 game tickets and one prize redemption ticket (for fair type prizes for children including ideas such as slap bracelets, slinkys, etc.)
• Donations will be voluntary but the main goal is to fundraise.
• We will also have our monthly raffle baskets on display to raise more money
• Mr. Harrison has arranged for Heisenburger’s food truck (pulled pork, buffalo chicken, mac and cheese) to be there.
  ○ Discussions were held regarding additional food truck options to include as well.
• Many volunteers will be needed to make this event a success.
  ○ Ms. Farrington suggested creating a small committee to organize and run the event and offered to volunteer.
• If the event is moved inside due to rain, there will be a completely different set of games, such as table games.
• Our costs will be limited to some supplies and prizes.
• The goal is to raise between $1,500 and $2,500.
